

INVITATION

to the

13th CAC Club Show of June 28, 2026, in Aarau (Schachen)

with the award of the CAC, Youth CAC, Veterans CAC

Club Champion and Club Winner

starting at 12 noon

Judge: Sentimrei Oksana (UA)

For all breeds belonging to the Southern and Eastern European Shepherd Dog Club:

www.hirtenhunde-schweiz.ch/pages/rassen.html

Fun Class: There will be both a male and a female winner. This class is for dogs that are unable to enter the official classes for reasons such as, no pedigree, castration, misaligned teeth etc.

On Saturday and Sunday, June 27 and 28, 2026, an SKG exhibition with CACIB will take place each day at the same location, along with a CAC exhibition for all dog breeds on Saturday only. It is possible to show the same dog at all 4 SKG events and to receive 4 CAC (including our club show) for the Swiss Champion, along with 2 CACIB.

All dogs are welcome to enter the club show, including non-members. Prices, registration forms and all other information are available at ausstellungen@hirtenhunde-schweiz.ch Each entrant will be issued a written Judge's Report. Each owner will receive a small gift as well.

The exhibition will be held outdoors with large trees and tents providing shade and shelter from sun or rain if needed. There are wooded areas and an open field available to walk your dog as we greatly value a relaxed atmosphere for dogs and owners. There are no entrance fees; refreshments will be available at the show.

All members, friends and interested parties are cordially invited for pre-exhibition refreshments starting at 11 am. Judging will begin at 12 noon.

This exhibition is an excellent showcase for all breeds and breeders, allowing spectators to make individual enquiries, with first-hand information available. Additionally, photos, along with results and breeders' listings will be published.

Registration deadline: June 1, 2026

We look forward to as many participants as possible
